William Ewing Love's testimony that the tialto, on his information, paid back only $1 in $100, operated a "phony" wire, leading maybe to a hole in the ground, and and never talked of deals, but of bets, and paid what it did pay to customers that those paid might bait others to come in with their money, was contradicted by "This man Love was only a printer." The showing that the lighting department is able to make is taken as the strongest kind of an argument in favor of the passage of the enabling bill by the legislature which will give Chicago's city government the authority to own and operate lighting plants for the entire city and develop the drainage canal water power.

The entire system now in use has been constructed and operated with money appropriated from the annual tax levies during the last fifteen years. It is said that there is no parallel in this country for the result Chicago has attained—it having built up the largest municipal lighting system in existence today without issuing a single bond or increasing the taxes for that purpose.

single bond or increasing the taxes for that purpose. Figures from the report of the city electrician, just made, show that since December. 1887, when the first municipal lighting plant was installed, the city has expended in construction and operating its present systems of lighting a total of $3,406,679.65, while to rent the same number of lights it has operated each year would have cost the city a total of $3,535,576.50.

Hence, according to this showing, the cost of the plants as they exist has been saved in the operation of the system. The cost this year of $53,51 a lamp represents a reduction over last year's cost of $3,97 a lamp, or a total of $17,896. The average number of lamps operated during the year was 4598, and the gross cost, including office expenses, was $241,224.11. To rent these lights from private companies at the lowest rates offered would cost $524,837. The difference in expenditure for the year is $283,612.89, due entirely to the city's owning and operating its own system of electric lighting.

The plea of poverty is not acceptable. If the Philippine treastry cannot spare the money, Congress should be called upon to make a liberal appropriation for the purpose.

Public interest in the Philippines, excited by the unexpected acquisition of those distant islands, has not yet been satisfied.

In fact we knew little more of the facts of Philippine life now than in 1898. We have only skimmed the surface. It is important that full and accurate information on this sub-

A POETS' UNION.

The poets of Germany have formed a union. Whether it was that they feared competition from the Kaiser, himself a poet of no mean ability, or whether it was that the poets, working independently, cut each others' throats in the matter of prices can-not be determined at this distance, but certain it is that the verse-makers of the Fatherland have banded themselves together to establish and maintain prices; and woe be unto him who shall betray the union by working below the scale! minimum price per line has been set; no poet dare go below mark, but he may charge anything above it within reason. All work must be charged for by the line, though some critics enough to suggest that union-made poetry should be sold by the yard, or at least by the linear, rather than the However, it is beneath the dignity of a bunch of union poets to heed such persifiage as this, and nothing will come of such raillery. Nor will it avail the carpers anything to suggest that the union agree to limit the output of verse. a general proposition all hand-made and hand-sewed verse is far erior to the machine-made product, of which the public has seen so many sad examples, and, as in the case of other firstclass commodities, it must be admitted that it is difficult to get too much of a good thing. Therefore it is hardly to be supposed that the number of verses bearing the union label turned out will be ourtailed. The posts are only following the tendency of the age to form what Mark Hanna calls "an association of capital for mutual efft;" and the trust-buster who tries to disrupt this organization will have a sorry job on his hands, for a phalanx of poets aroused, could easily stir the public heart and other this detractor under a deluge of papery and peppery

DIVIDENDS IN CAR STRAPS.

With far too few cars to accommodate passengers with seats, the St. Louis street railway companies offer too little or no relief in the near future. They hope to handle the immense crowd expected for the World's Fair with practically the same equip-ment as they are now using. It is claimed that the visitors will use the lightly laden outgoing cars to go to the Fair, while the St. Louis workers are being carried to their offices and places of business on the opposite tracks. In the evenings, the conditions will be reversed, and everybody will be satisfied.

But as the population of the city will be largely and perma nently increased by the influx of people who will come here to make a living and will not be mere visitors to the Fair, how is this excess to be handled, even if the opposite current of travel theory should prove true? With little or no improvement to the service in number of cars, better arranged schedules, connection at transfer points, etc., will not the average conditions be much worse than they are now? Will not the companies still continue to get their large dividends out of the straps, as at present? And will not the packing and waiting be intensified? Will St. Louis permit the majority of her World's Fair visitors to be strap passengers? And are St. Louisans prepared to be delayed more than ever in getting to and from business by the strap-passenger policy applied to World's Fair conditions? Charles T. Yerkes advised New Yorkers to make a crusade against the straps. By concerted effort, the people of New York are obtaining more cars and more seating capacity on the elevated lines. They are still working for relief on the surface

What will St. Louis do? Are her merchants and citizens generally prepared to let matters run along until it is too late to take any steps for relief? Or will they not unite for the enforcement of existing laws and the creation of much-needed legis lation for the proper regulation of street railway traffic? The Transit company alone carried nearly 14,000,000 more passengers in 1902 than in 1901. The people know what this meant, in the way of overpacking and loss of time and money by waiting for cars. They ought to know that it means unbearable conditions in the future, unless steps are taken for regulation and relief.

Water Boiled Without Fire

That it may be possible to cook without fire is shown by the following physical experiment. A metallic tube filled with water is placed upon an ordinary rotary machine, put into motion by a hand lever. The tube is to be closed by a cork. As one turns the hand-wheel a small wheel connected with the former by means of a little belt, rotates simultaneously; the tube is fastened to this small wheel. In diminishing the rapid rotation of the tube by putting a wooden clamp around it so that the two sides of the clamp cause a constant friction upon the tube, the latter grows hot and reacts naturally upon the water contained therein until it begins to boil and finally throws out the cork. In this way boiling water is obtained which may be used for any purpose.

With all its collection of old line stars, with Mitchell, Shaw, Glessow and other cracks in the fray, the Acme cocked hat team has again been "rolled." The 1905 five turned the trick Monday night on the Acme alleys, winning three of the five games played, showing the Acme team another notch down in the standings.

Mitchell, who has been bowling intermittently during the season, made his first sppearance of the year for the Acmes and was not up to his old form.

The Acmes were long on science, as usual, but short on pins. With 8 more center punches than the enemy they scored in fewer misses. At present steam-produced electrical power in Toronto costs from $40 to $60 per horsepower per year, supplied at a imited number of hours per day, while, according to the estimate of a competent engineer acting for the municipalities, water-produced power as projected will cost only $15 per horsepower supplied continuously.

The idea of the municipalities is to string big trunk cables from Niagara Falls east as far as Toronto and west as far as London, Ont., and supply power to all factories along the route. It is claimed that Niagara Falls would be to western Ontario what coal has been to England, and would make the Niagara area one of the leading manufacturing centers of the world.

This, however, was a mistake.

The dividend paid yesteray was the same as that declared in February of last year.

The Standard pays a dividend according to the earnings of the quarter, and the earnings of the second winer quarter are usually the heaviest of the year.

From the present indications the dividends for 1953 will be at the rate of at least 65 per cent for the year. The total dividend announced yesterday will be $50,000,000.

Of this amount John D. Rockefeller will receive $8,000,000.

Some of the export business in grain reported or alleged to have been reported by New York during the course of the day has a very queer look in the light of the final confirmations. Thus on yesterday the amount said to have been taken for export was placed as high as 46 loads, where the final confirmation made the amount sold is loads. A New York telegram says export business was disappointing, and every cable from the United Kingdom showed lower prices bid.

Reports on foreign crops up to Feb. 1 to the state department at Washington show unseasonably mild weather. Official Russian reports show deficiency in winter grain in most of European Russia, and crops entirely destroyed in 16 provinces. The Hungarian fall-sown crops are poor. The Roumania and Buigarian good.

The Michigan state report says there was no damage to the wheat crop during January, as very little freezing and thawing weather. Farmers' deliverles from Aug. 1 to Feb. 1 were 2.473,000 bu, which was 352,000 bu more than for same period the previous season.

A Metal Abdomen.

From the New York Press.

Gen. Snowden Andrews, who died in Baltimore the other day, enjoyed the distinction of being the other man in the world who possessed a metal abdomen. Being punched below the belt he ratified like at in pan. His entire bay window was shot off in the war and his bowels were spread upon the ground. "Here's another dead one, said the surgeons, gathering up the intestines along with a few handfuls of sand and cling them back in the body. The wounded soldier showed signs of life, and they sewed him up with place of tarred string. Later on he got a metal front, which he wore to the day of his death.

Water Rates.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

There are no tangible reasons why the reduced rates should not be granted to all who have for years been paying from 1 to 3 cents per 100 gallons. Secondly there should be a uniform meter rate of 1 cent per 100 gallons in place of the present unfair law which allows one consumer the minimum rate, I cent per 100 gallons, and others who do not use as much water have to pay from 100 to 200 per cent higher rate. This is a great injustice, for the city should be a public benefactor, and any common commodity which her citizens have to use and she supplies, she should furnish them as low as possible. The householders' water licenses have been reduced twice in the last five years, while the meter vates.

To Exterminate Cockroaches.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

In answer to Vesta's request in tonight's paper in people's column would say the best way to exterm'nate "cockroaches" best way to exterminate "cockroaches" (but I think she means croton or water bugs, very common in the houses in the East, without regard to class) is to keep the place dry and free from water, of which they are fond, and to sprinkle powdered borax in cracks or crevices. They generally harbor in the kitchen, where there is water and grease. Kerosene or gasoline will eradicate them, but would not advise its use in inexperienced hands.

Cost of Materials in Public Schools.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The following letter answers an inquiry sent to the Post-Dispatch, and forwarded to Superintendent Soldan, as to why chilfren in kindergartens are charged 50 cents needed in the kindergarten and in the primary grades.

I may add that when the free text books are extended to all the grades, beginning with the next scholastic year, these writing and drawing materials will also be furnished free. It has been the practice in the kindergarien to require of the children that they bring 50 cents once every 10 weeks to defray this expense. Yours respectfully, Superintendent.

Is there any good reason why a woman should not wear trousers and a coat if she wishes? In point of modesty, would not this be more modest than the clinging skirts which many women hold up on the streets in such a way as to be objectionable and immodest? Long skirts can be used immodestly, and are undestrable for health and convenience in walking. The divided skirt is light, cleanly and sensible. Do we have to carry heavy dragging skirts always, just because this has been done for hundreds of years to the ruining of many a woman's health? Freedom and ease in dress will protect woman's health and enable her to take more exercise.

Have noticed that as women get older they seem to think they should wear somber colors, which afe really more trying to the complexion than white and many delicate shades in the bright colors. Besides, color is cheering to others, as well as to us, and cheerfulness brings young locks. Soft tints in the bright shades can be becomingly worn. Women should pay more instead of less attention to dress, as they grow older, and should not allow themselves to fall out of the prevailing.

Reach Him.

In a cell in the observation ward of the City Hospital Peter Teirons, 57 years of age, was found dead Tuesday morning. He went to the dispensary two days ago and in an incoherent way tried to tell of the battles in which he had been engaged during the civil war. He was sent to the City Hospital for observation, Since his incarceration he has been moody, but at times he told attendants that he had once been a great general. He said that he had often dared death in battle and that the dread enemy of mankind had no terrors for him. It was not thought he was ill physically, but he was attacked by heart disease and died before the physical sould be summoned to the observation ward.

Kansas City Court of Appeals Holds Tax Bill Issued on Such Con-

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 17.—The Court of Appeals has decided that it is illegal for the board of public works of Kansas for the board of public works of Kansas City to specify, in calling for bids for street pavement, that a certain kind of brick shall be used and that a tax bill issued on a contract secured under such an advertisement is vokd.

The board of public works in providing for paving Nineteenth street specified that it should be done with vitrified brick company. Special tax bills were issued against abutting property to pay for this paving. Among the bills were $500 issued against Frank Schmidt, who refused to pay. He cat in the circuit court, but won on appeal. There are five other pending suits that will be determined by this decision.

The CRAWFORD people did not really look for any response to their Sunday's Ad. when they looked at the snow-covered streets, and realized the temperature was down to 3 aboe zero yesterday morning, but were agreeably surprised to find, at 9 a. m., their Fourth Floor crowded with eager buyers of the advertised merchandise. This giving away of goods will positively last for just five days more!!

"I came to Independence to see Frank James about the reports that he was to play in a dramatic production called the Younger Brothers, Bank Robbers, and told him that if he did such a thing he was no friend of mine. I do not promise that he or anyone else shall put on such a play. I intend to live strictly up to the terms of my pardon in every way, and if they will let me visit my relatives for a few days in peace I will come to Kansas City and stay a week and talk to everyone who wants to talk.

"You may say that the story that I or Frank James will take part in any play representing the Younger Boys on the stage s absolutely false."

This was what Cole Younger said this morning with much emphasis. He came to Independence about 8 o'clock last night from Lee's Summit, intending to return the same evening, but missed the train, and went back this morning at 10 o'clock. He spent the evening with his cousin, Dr. G. T. Twyman, at his home on Pleasant street. Mrs. L. W. Twyman, Dr. Twyman's mother, is the only living sister of Younger's mother, and she was at the home of her son. She is 74 years of age. Younger was accompanied by his nephew, Harry Hall. By appointment he met Frank James for the purpose of asking him if it were true that he had agreed to go on the stage in a play representing the Youngers as bank robbers. He said that James indignantly denied all such idea, and said he would not do such a thing for a thousand dollars a

It was the first time Younger and James had met for 30 years, and this was a busi-ness meeting. They did not remain together long, James returning to Kansas City the same evening.

Few persons knew that Cole Younger was in town last evening. There was no reception and no one present to see him ex-cept the members of the family. This morning only the newspaper reporters called, as it was understood that Younger had already left for Lee's Summit. He expects to spend the week visiting among relatives and friends at and near Lee's Summit and said that he would then that he did not care about it.

"The people had better stay at home and not risk taking pneumonia by coming to see me or anybody else. I do not want receptions or notoriety and am not going to permit it," said Younger pleasantly and

Seven hundred patients at the City Hos-ital, some of whom are at the point of spect is that their lives will be endangered by the lack of coal at that institution.

Since the cold snap struck St. Louis the hospital has been without enough coal and the authorities have been compelled to economise in the use of what they had.
Among the invalids are 52 pneumonia patients, to whom any material reduction in the temperature of their rooms would be fatal. There are a number of others, suffering from diseases which are practically incurable, unless an even temperature can be maintained.
Supt. Nietert says the situation is most critical. He has notified William Ratican, from whom the fuel for the hospital is furnished, that he must have coal at all

This lasted until 10 o'clock, when another load was brought just in the nick of time. This second load was sufficient to last until morning, as in a few of the rooms the temperature can safely be reduced during the night!

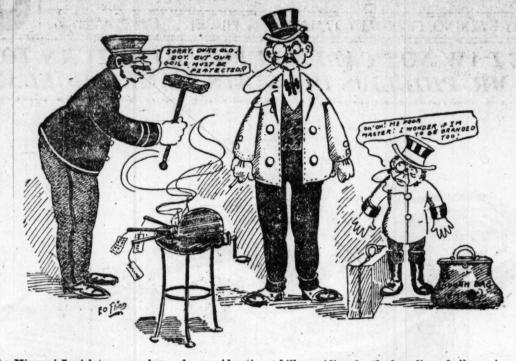

The City Hospital patients are aware of the situation and some of them who are extremely ill are afraid they will be compelled to fight he battle against death in cold rooms. The nurses try to reassure them, but some of them are in despair. Before the coal famine their cases were critical, and unless speedy relief is given their doom is sealed.

Aside from the life and death feature of the famine, the shortage of coal causes a great deal of inconvenience. Nurses, internes and other attendants who take meir meals at the hospital, have been put on short fare until enough coal is received to warrant keeping up fire in the ranges. INJUNCTION ASKED AGAINST THE CHICAGO CANAL PEOPLE

The Chemists, Who Have Made Many Analyses of Mississippi Water, Are the Principal Witnesses in the Case.

Special Commissioner James H. Bright Washington began hearing evidence in the Chicago drainage canal case at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the city counselor's office in the City Hall.

The case has been known as the injunc-tion proceedings brought by the state of uri vs. the state of Illinois and the Sanitary Drainage Canal district of Chi-ayed by motions of the defendants' attorneys to dismiss the case.

While the outcome of the case is particularly of interest to the people of St. Louis, it is considered that the state is affected and for that reason Attorney-General Crow is appearing in the case and is being assisted by City Counselor Charles W. Bates.

One of the chief reasons for the delays in the hearings was to secure evidence. Much work has been done in that line under the direction of City Chemist Telchman and Dr. Ravold, former city bacteriologist, who engaged Prof. Kayser as an assistant.

They have secured many samples of water from different points on the river, and have prepared analyses to be submitted, and the chemists were the first witnesses on the stand.

When the case was called Tuesday afternoon the defendants were represented by Attorney-General H. J. Hamilin of Illinois, James Todd, John G. Drennen and William Springer of Chicago.

The State of Missouri is represented by Attorney-General Crow. City Counselor Bates, Associate City Counselor Woerner and Assistant City Counselor Woerner and Assistant City Counselor Nicholson.

Any honest person who suffers from theumatism is welcome to this offer. I am a specialist in Rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other

I am a specialist in Rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mall you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it falls, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use to such drugs, and it is folly to take them.

Tou must get the disease out of the blood. My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you, anyway. If it falls, it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 688, Rache, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

The great success which has attended the work of the federal authorities at Ottawa in their efforts to properly advertise Canada in the United States. Great Britain and in Europe has proved an incentive for even greater endeavor in the future.

While the increase in arrivals in Canada last year from the United States and also from Europe was considered abnormally large, that from Great Britain showed even a larger percentage. The total emigration from the British isless to this country last year was about 70 per cent greater than the average for many years past. A most energetic campaign for Britain is now being inaugurated. One of the features of it is a scheme to bring the British farmer into closer relations with the resources of Canada.

A number of representative farmers of Manitoba and the Northwest Territory will be sent over to the old country, and will visit every agricultural center in it. By spreading themselves over the country it is expected that they will practically cover the territory within two months, and thus bring directly before the British agriculturist the advantages which this country offers for settlement. The rush of American farmers to secure first choice of the lands of Manitoba and the territories has groved a most potent factor in focusing the attention of the British public upon Canada

Another important feature in connection with this movement is a plan to induce the returned British soldier to come to Canada. These men are returning to England from Bouth Africa in large numbers. It is thought that the imperial authorities will be inclined to encourage them to sottle on lands in Canada. The Canadian government has been for months corresponding upon the subject.

Late cable advices state that the scheme of the Rev. Mr. Barr of London, who is a Canadian, to send an all-British colony into the Northwest is assuming astonishing proportions, and it will require two steamships to transport the settlers who expect to leave for Canada the latter part of next month.

Farmers of the Brown's Wells, N. In appearance he looks exactly like any other biack crow, but he isn't. He has a name, Jim, and an owner, Job Stephenson, who says he has not yet had an offer of money enough to buy him. Jim was a member of a big flock that made a lote of trouble for the farmers, but being a superior crow, he forsook his bad company and went to liv. on Stephenson's place last spring. Job soon learned that the bird meant well and fed him. Jim accepted the compliment and has never changed his headquarters.

Every morning the crow accompanies the men to White's cranberry bog, flying along with them a distance of two miles. While they work Jim anuses himself in the manner which has given him his local reputation.

His pet diversion is picking the pockets of the coats thrown off by the men at work, and there is no use in trying to hide a coat from him. One man recently thought he would fool the bird, and hid his coat in a corn stack. Jim found it and cleaned out the pockets of tobacco, matches and

How Two Men Without Capital Have Built Two Immense Lines of Railway.

EACH IS TODAY

A POTENT FORCE

Pluck and Enthusiasm Caused Uriah Lott and Archer E. Stilwell to Succeed and Overran Enormous Obstacles in Their Paths.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Two great railroads in this country were built by men who started to do the work with about $15. "Shoestrings," it is said by men who know the history of the two men and their struggles, "built the lines."

Uriah Lott built a road 1000 miles long, and when he started to do it he had $15 important trunk lines in the West, and when he started he had nothing but his own confidence and the opposition of Wall

Each today is a potent force in railroad circles. Lott is the head of a great undertaking and has the backing of millions. Stilwell is the president of a corporation with the Gould interests behind him. Mr. Lott is no stranger to hard manual work. His hands and the pick became acquainted long ago. He has been a track layer, a bridge builder and a railroad maker in the practical sense. Stilwell, on the other hand, has worked almost entirely with his head. Both men have accomplished like results, but Lott did it in the field and Stilwell in his office. One is tanned by exposure to the sun and his hands have been hardened by work. The other is pale faced and his hands are soft as a woman's. Lott Began

Lott was a contractor in the Southwest when it occurred to him that a portion of Texas was open to the railroad developer. That was about 14 years ago. He had $15 in ready cash. Money he had to get at once, and he knew that it was useless to look for it from bankers. He knew that there was no use looking to Wall street for it, as the interests there would be opposed to his scheme naturally. He went to an old cattle man named Kenedy, whose lands were a principality in themselves. He pictured to the cattle man the results which would follow the opening of scuthern Texas by a railroad. He showed him how towns and cities would spring up and how the land would blossom out. Kenedy was shrewd and careful, but Lott talked him into a condition of enthusiasm little less intense than his own. The cattleman agreed to furnish $1,000,000.

The San Antonia & Arkansas Pass Railroad was the name Lott gave to his corporation as soon as he had the million at his disposal. It boomed while the money lasted. Then there were times of dispress, laborers had to be paid and bills had to be met. Lott himself took pick and shovel and werked with the men. He stamped the earth around the ties and was in the ranks of the section hand in full earnest.

Mystery of Texas was open to the railroad developer

How He Did It.

How the trick was turned Loft himself never has explained, but the project pulled through. Probably Kennedy was persuaded to sell another bunch of cattle and give another sum to the railroad. Probably another man of wealth was persuaded to join hands in the venture. With one period of stringency tided over, things went better until another period arrived. The time came when Loft had to have $80,000 or go into the courts and admit his senture was a failure. He got the $80,000. He went to G. W. Prackenridge of San Antonio, and Urackeur. Gge saved the day.

San antonio, and trackenruge saved the day.

The day of triumph csme finally for Lott. He rode over the line he had helped to build, not on the handcar, as he had gone over it many times before, but in his private car. Settlers flocked into the country opened up by the new road. His predictions came true. One town among those which sprang up was named Kennedy in honor of the cattleman who financed the project. The Southern Pacific finally bought the road. The man who built it now has plans for another Texas road. This time he will, not have the troubles he had when the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass was first laid on paper. Stilwell's Work Without Resources. Just about the time Lott finished build-Ing his road Arthur Stilwell came to the front with his project. He wanted to build an air line from Kansas City to the Gulf of Mexico, and he wanted to build it without paying tribute to Wall street. He succeeded for the first hundred miles, having interested men of wealth. Then came the panic of 1882, and the men who were at the back of the project were caught in it and the financial support vanished.

That left Stilwell without resources to mish his project, and he had to look elsewhere. For a man without the characteristics of this railroad builder, it is probable that the panic would have been the end of the dream. Stilwell had no idea of giving up. He went to men in the East and with hispersuasive power he would have been successful there if it had not been for the circumstance. The men had no money. They likewise had lost all in the panic. Defeated in the East, Stilwell turned back for the West almost ready to give up. There seemed to be no hope. On the train back he became acquainted with a Dutchman—a kindly, shrewd, little old man, to whom he was moved to tell the story of his failure.

When Stilwell had finished telling of his plans and his disappointments the Dutchman sald:

"Come to Chicago with me and I'll get capital."

Brought the Gulf ing his road Arthur Stilwell came to the

to the Road.

Stillwell went with him. He proved to be a wealthy banker of Amsterdam. The money was fortheoming and the building of the road was commenced again. His next difficulty was that of finding a terminal. He was shut out of New Orleans by the Southern Pacific. He could not get into Gulveston. Neither could be find entrance to Sabine. Other interests held the keys to these positions and he could not find a way.

keys to these positions and he could not find a way.

His road was built for 1000 miles and stopped nowhere. Then the news was received that Stillwell was buying a great tract of land on the shore of Lake Sabine and that he was dredging a ship canal through the lake with an idea of making his terminus on the shore. The government stopped that and the promoter carried his ease into the United States courts. Defeated there, he began a new project. He dug a ship canal across the prairie from Part Arthur to Sabine pass and brought the Guiff of Mexico up to his railroad, being unable to get his railroad to the

The accident occurred 50 feet west of Forsythe Junction. Car No. 2093, bound for the city, met car No. 2189, bound for Clayton. The motormen claim not to have seen each other until it was too late to check the speed of the cars. Neither man turned off the current, but sprang back into the cars and braced themselves for the shock. The front platforms were wrecked and all glass in the cars shattered. Passengers were thrown over seats and of the 40 in the two cars there were few who did not get bruised. Traffic was closed over an hour and those city bound had to face the biting wind across an open field to De Baliviere and Delmar avenues.

We Want Every One to Know How to Get Strong.

OUR VINOL IS A STRENGTH CREATOR.

It is pitiful to see a man that should be in his prime dragging himself through life dejected, discouraged and broken down, due to some premature weakness. It does not make any dif-ference whether this weakness is the result of dissipation, indiscreet living

Vinol is a scientific rebuilder and strength creator. It contains the active curative principles of Cod-Liver Oil in a highly concentrated form. The benefit that can be derived from the use of these properties is so well known that there is no need for us to enter into that subject.

e could quote many instances where Vinol has done good; as an example, here is one coming from Jane S. Fen-fren, a prominent member of the W. C. T. U., and a resident of Suncook, N. H.

"I was run down, was in bed from May to March. Was so nervous and sickly that every one thought I was in a most precarious condition. My weight was reduced to 120 pounds. I was ad-vised to take Vinol, which I did, and am now very much better, and am able to be about again. As a rebuilder and a strength giver nothing can equal it. Vinol is a God-blessing to anybody."

Because Vinol is delicious, and because it does contain these much-sought-after medicinal properties we endorse it, and we unhesitatingly proclaim that it is better than any preparation of cod-liver oil or tonic rebuilder we have ever had in our store.

Imports Accumulated During Blockade to Be Rushed In by March 1.

VENEZUELA WILL GET CREAM OF CUSTOMS

Envoys of Germany, England, and Italy Display Costly Lack of Insight Into Commercial Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.-By not being good men of business the diplomatic repre-sentatives of Germany, Great Britain and Italy lost a big point in dealing with Venezuela. Whether Minister Bowen understood it or not, it is a fact which has just now become apparent that Venezuela will get the cream of the customs duties at its ports this year, while the triple alliance will have to be content with 30 per cent, of the skin med milk

The protocols of agreements between the allied powers and Venezuela as signed last night provide for a division of the customs revenues at the two principal ports of Venezuela after March 1 in such a way as to reserve 30 per cent for the creditors and 70 per cent for the republic. The continental diplomats overlooked the fact that they have been starving Venezuela for some time, and that there is an enormous collection of dutiable products now within easy distances which will be rushed through the custom houses during the next two weeks and which will not pay toll to the triple alliance or anybody else.

All Can Be

Rushed Through.

Ever since the blockade began valuable

Ever since the blockade began valuable cargoes have accumulated, particularly at Curacoa, and these can be passed through the custom houses without difficulty and in an extremely short time. It has also been learned that the agent of the Red D Steamship Co. line, which carries the bulk of the tusiness to Venezuela, has been in washington during the entire time of the negotiations, and notified his company fully a week ago that the blockade would probably be raised about this time.

In this way it has been possible to load a number of big steamers with valuable cargoes for Venezuelan importers. Practically all of the belated goods are either here or fin West Indian ports, and it can be taken for granted that President Castro will see the importance of getting them all through the custom house before March I. Gen. Castro is pretty well versed in dibious financial methods, and it would be quite like him to offer special inducements in the way of small rebates to every importer who gets under the line before the first day of March.

According to recent estimates the total customs revenue of Venezuela is about $5,000,000 annually. This means a half a million a month, so that ordinarily it would be an extremely easy matter to import enough to provide receipts of $225,000 during the time which remains until the supervision of the customs receipts by forcigners goes into effect.

May Rush Into the Millions.

In view of the great congestion of im ports caused by the complete paralysis of foreign commerce during the blockade, the imports for the remainder of February are likely to be far in excess of the average and the receipts might easily run up to several million dolars. This possibly explains why Mr. Bowen was so willing to agree to the extortionate demands of Germany.

agree to the extortionate demands of Germany.

Venexuela will make up in the next two weeks considerably more than enough to pay the entire preferred demands of Germany, Great Britain and Italy. As a natu al consequence of the eno mous rush of the next two weeks the importations after march I may be expected to fall off so that the percentage to be set aside for the triple alliance will result in a much smaler sum at first than the buildozing nations could possibly have imagined.

This is the one good thing Venexuela makes out of the negotiations, and it can fairly be assumed that the people here in the United States will not be disappointed about it. Whether President Castro planned the United States will not be disappointed about it. Whether President Castro planned this little piece of sharp practice to teach the European nations that they were not as wise as they thought they were, remains to be seen. It is certain, however, that Minister Bowen was not aware of the advantage Venesuela would receive by deterring the nawnbroking operations of the European alliance until after March 1, because he has uniformly conducted the negotiations in a spirit of fairness.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Persons familiar with shoe trade conditions in Lynn believe that the beginning of the end of the strike of the Knights of Labor Cutters and Stitchers against the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union has come. CZAR'S WILL UNKNOWN FACTO Destiny of Balkans Depends on Rus sian Ruler, Who Probably Favors the Macedonian Cause.

LONDON, Feb. 17.-The unknown in the eastern question is the Czar's will. The arrest of Macedonia conspirators in The arrest of Macedonia conspirators in Bulgaria is attributed to pressure from the Russian court, but there is no decisive proof that the movement for the emancipation of the Balkan peninsula, which received a great stimulus from the festivities at Shipka and Sofia, last year, has been condemned in St. Petersburg.

The principality of Bulgaria, which was created by the congress of Berlin, remains nominisally a tributary state of the Turkish empire under European protection, and the ministers at Sofia are compelled to restrain the activities of the intriguers while the Russian and Austrian proposals for reform are under consideration by the powers.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 17.-S. S. Glasscock. farmer, faced a blizzard in his shirt sleeves for more than an hour yesterday afternoon to save 100 passengers on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad. Glasscock was frozen so badly that he had to be carried into the cars after he

JOHN DREW SHOWS A LIVELY MUMMY

John Drew's mummy, in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" is no mummy of Egyptian mold, but a real, live, up-to-date mummy of the Mark Twain school. The play, as presented to a St. Louis audience at the Olympic Theater last

The play, as presented to a St. Louis audience at the Olympic Theater last night, is strictly modern in lines and construction. If the name of the author had not been printed on the playbilli as Isaac Henderson, it would certainly have passed as a Clyde Fitch affair. It starts in with that everlasting tittle tattle that forms the bone and sinew of the Fitch construction and laer on developed largely into a character production along the same line.

And it is this character feature that makes the play a success, for a success it is beyond the question of doubt.

In order to know something about play, let me give a brief outline of its action. At the rise of the curtain Lord Lumley, let me give a brief outline of its action. But still the mummy doesn't appear and he continues not to appear until his wife. Then the play begins.

Lumley comes out and refuses to go out to dinner on the plas that he is too busy. Enter one D'Orelli, who is so polished on the outside that (you know he must be anthracite within. And D Orelli proceeds at once to make himself agreeable to Lady Lumley.

universally known as Castoria. With a record of over fifty, under five years of age, out of every hundred deaths, it was the AMBITION OF EVERY PHYSICIAN to discover a remedy suitable for the ailments of infants and children that would decrease this distressing mortality. In Castoria that relief has been found.

Let us take the statistics covering the deaths in the City of New York for the past 30 years, and here we find the benificent effects of a combination of drugs excluding opiates and narcotics so long sought for, namely: CASTORIA.

Of the total number of deaths in New York City in 1870, 50 per cent. were under five years of age; in 1880, 46 per cent.; in 1890, 40 per cent.; in 1900, 35 per cent. only. Just stop to think of it.

Until 1897 no counterfeits or imitations of Castoria appeared on drug store shelves, but since that date Mr. Fletcher has been called upon to suppress a number of these frauds. While the record for 1900 does not come down to our expectation it is owing to the carelessness of mothers when buying Castoria. The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the only safeguard, and he alone is authorized to use the doctor's name.

Miss Marion Ivell made her bow to St. Louis in the title role and added one more triumph to the many she has scored on the local stage. Her superb voice was at its best. She not only sang weil, but she acted with an abandon and strenuousness that recalled the work of Calve, the ideal of the part. She has been been so that recalled the work of Calve, the ideal of the part. She has been atomatically entire in the sight deficiency in personal magnetism. The only objections to her portrayal of the part lay in her over-acting.

The Toreador was finely presented by Mr. Goff, the chief song of the part being one of the big hits of the evening. Mr. D'Aubigne sang Don Jose admirably, but acted some of the best scenes rather stiffly.

D'Aubigne saug Don Jose admirably, but acted some of the best scenes rather stiffly.

Miss Paget Watrous was substituted for Miss Renyson in the role of Micaela for an unexplained reason. She is a mite of humanity with a wee voice that is sweet and clear. She received by big share of applause for her work in the third act. Mr. Boyle was a good Zuniga, acting and singing the part satisfactorily. The orchestra was a feature of the performance as was also the chorus after the first act.

AMERICANS WERE MALTREATED

Their Schooner Was Seized by Honduras Gunboat and They Were Put in Prison.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 17.-Charles Kuttler of Dubuque, Io., has arrived here from Puerto Cortes, Honduras, with the news that he and a party of 10 business men of Cleveland. O., and other cities, had been held temporarily as prisoners of the government of Honduras.

The party was on an American schooner

The party was on an American schooner, bound for the mouth of the Patusa river, to look after timber and fruit land nvestments. Off the north coast a Honduras ironclad gunboat stopped the schooner, put a number of sallors on board and searched the ship for contraband goods.

"While a band of soldier-sallors were going through our clothes and others confined themselves to searching the schooner, a platoon of the crew of the gunboat stood on the deck of the boat with rifies leveled at us." Mr. Kuttler sald.

"We had to throw up our hands. When the searching was over we were taken to Puerto Cortez as prisoners of war. We were finally released, after experiencing many hardships."

The commander of the gunboat attempted to smooth the matter over by inv ting Ruttler and his party to a luncheon at his plantation across the bay from Puerto Cortez. He also entertained them on board the warship.

The four walls fell inwardly about 10 o'clock, showering a mass of fire that caused Chief Swingley uneasiness. The snow on the roofs prevented fire from this cause. Great excitement prevailed in the neighborhood during the fire and on the advice of the police many families removed their furniture to the sidewalk, where they huddled, trying to shield themselves from the biting wind.

BRYAN IS SILENT ON PARKER BOOM

"I Prefer Not to Say Any thing About Judge Parker Now."

ONLY CANDIDATES OF HIS SCHOOL ARE ACCEPTABLE

"I Will Not Consider the Possibility of the Men Who Have Been Against Party Being Put in Control of It."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—After a two days:
scrutiny of the Judge Parker boom, William Jennings Bryan today served his ultimatum on the boomers.

In words, cloaking a pregnant threat, he gave notice that no candidate not agreeable to his following could be named.

Mr. Bryan's statement was in answer to the question:

"What attitude will you take in the event of a candidate of the old school of Democ-racy being named for President?"

"I will not assume," was the emphatic reply, "that there can be such a revolution in the party as would place the men who The party as would place the men who have been against it in control next year.

The next platform, in my opinion, will, in every essential particular, reaffirm the principles of the Kansas City platform. I firmly believe it will be along those lines, of course, covering the new additional questions that have or may arise. I do not believe the platform of 1900 will be repudiated."

"If an eastern man is nominated, will you support him?" "It depends on what he thinks, not where he is found." "It depends on what he thinks, het whele he is found."
"Do you think the nomination of Judge Parker would be satisfactory?"
"I prefer not to say anything about Judge Parker now," was the reply, in a tone that was significant.
"Have you heard very much of the Parker boom during your stay here?"
"What I have heard I prefer not to discuss."

"What I have heard I prefer not to discuss."

There has been considerable talk of candidates representing views opposed to yours. Judge Parker. Mr. Cleveland and other eastern men identified with the Cleveland school have been discussed as possible candidates. Would you actively oppose such a candidate?"

"I will not consider the possibility of the men who have been against the party being placed in control of it."

Mr. Bryan left the city today for Baltimore.

FORMER MARSHAL BOHLE DEAL

Cancer of Stomach Fatal to Veteran Liveryman at Lutheran Hospital.

Arrangements for the funeral of former United States Marshal Louis C. Bohle, who died Monday night at the Lutheran Hospidied Monday night at the Lutheran Hospital, will be completed Tuesday afternoon. The body was removed Tuesday morning to the home of Rudolph H. Bohle, a brother, at 453 Morgan street.

Mr. Bohle's death was unexpected, as he was at his livery stable on Chestnut street, between Eleventh and Tweifth, Saturday morning. He had, however, been suffering from cancer of the stomach, and that afternoon went to the Lutheran Hospital for treatment. An operation was performed Sunday.

Mr. Bohle was United States marshal during the administration of President McKiniey. He was 64 years old and leaves a widow, two children having died. During the civil war he was a clerk in the local quartermaster's department. In 1888 he embarked in the livery business, and in the same year married Miss Olivia Fergison. He belonged to two lodges, the Legion of Honor and the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

The firemen have not demanded any increase in wages, but have made demands concerning more liberal allowances of transportation. The trainmen want more wages. It is said President Ramsey has refused to keep pace with the increase granted by other St. Louis lines. This increase amounts to 15 per cent for freight trainmen and 12 per cent for passenger trainmen. It is understood that President. Ramsey is willing to grant a small increase to the trainmen employed west of the M ssissippi, but not to the men employed on the lines east of the Mississippi.

Machine for Leading Green Countrymen Astray Exhibited to a Jury.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—In a trial which is now progressing in the county court in Brooklyn, District Attorney Clarke has had occasion to show the workings of a machine used to catch persons susceptible to the influence of the green goods idea. and by which it was said at least $50,000 had been obtained.

It was in the trial of Samuel Faust and Harry Faust on a charge of offering for sale counterfeit money. The district attorney told the jury that the defendants offered for $35 to give $100 in money so closely resembling the genuine that it was guaranteed to pass the inspec-tion of bank cashiers. The victim was then

Then Mr. Clark showed the jury the mechanism and explained its workings. It consisted of a copper box about two feet square with a false bottom and cover. It square with a faise bottom and cover. It is alleged that the Fausts would take two genuine bills, wet them with a "secret" preparation, place a piece of tissue paper between them and put them in an envelope. The latter would then be placed in the box and the cover closed.

Half a dozen batteries attached to the box would then be set in operation, the strange noises impressing the victim and making him believe that some strange process was going on.

In the excitement the false bottom would be allowed to drop over the first envelope, leaving exposed another envelope in which three genuine bills would be found. The center bill would be supposed to be the counterfeit that had just been made.

The prospective victim would be allowed to take it to a bank, and, finding that it passed muster, usually returned to get large quantities of green goods, which were palpably frauds.
